ABSTRACT

This directory of publishers of ethnic and multicultural materials focuses mainly on small presses, distributors, and resource organizations that are rarely included in standard reference sources, although some well-known publishers are included because of their substantial contributions. The directory contains over 210 entries listed alphabetically by organization title. Each entry shows the name of the organization or institution, its address, telephone or fax numbers, and a short annotation that describes the publishing activities and the ethnic groups covered. Appendixes list university publishing houses that have multicultural publications and information about nominations for a multicultural award. (SLD)
